Customer Testimonial

“I.D. Images is always very dependable and goes the extra mile.”

“Having dealt with many different types of suppliers over the years, I am consistently encouraged by the Team at I.D. Images for many reasons. First, Lisa Stang has always given my larger projects careful consideration which has really helped. We don’t win them all but we seem to win more than we lose. I have been a very loyal buyer, especially to people that show that they will personally take time to talk to you, and make a special effort to help you out when you need it most. This personal contact seems to be a lost art in today’s world but I feel it is still a key to continued success. I want to keep my customers for life. Secondly, Kellye Laszlo (customer service) has been a very nice addition to your team. Very personable and knowledgeable. Helps when it counts! Let’s not forget Laser Queen, Carrie Jarvis. Very punctual and on the spot. Having knowledge and knowing your customers is paramount to success in today’s business climate. If you know your customers, are honest, and can have somewhat of a personal relationship with them you will have customers for life.”

“The I.D. Image team has done very well to earn my trust and business.”
